

WHY A MACINTOSH?

A Seminar Presented by Bill Euler
January 2008

What goes into the decision about which computer to use?

What do you want to do with the computer?

Who will be using the computer?

Desktop or Laptop

How long do you want the computer to last?

How much money do you want to spend?

What brands of computers are there?

Dell

HP

Compaq

Gateway

eMachines

Lenovo

Sony

Toshiba

And many, many more. ALL are sold with Windows Vista installed

Apple Macintosh

Think Different—Think Operating System

Windows Vista

6 Versions Plus the 32bit and 64bit versions

Priced from $199 to $399 (Only the $399 version has all the features)

Apple OS X (Leopard)

1 version

Priced at $129 (Full Featured)

Linux

Usually free or nominal cost

Limited software

Requires a higher level of expertise

Macintosh Leopard included software

iPhoto, iMovie, iDVD, iTunes, Safari, Mail, Address Book, iCal, Text Edit, Dictionary, iChat, Photo Booth, iWeb, Calculator, Spaces, Automator, Chess, Garage Band, Front Row, Image Capture, Quick Time Player, Time Machine, Widgets

Features

Quick Look, Cover Flow